

- What I did this week was identify, find, and import the necessary tools for the tools to become functional

- Next week Devin and I will work on designing the tooling station for the drill, torque wrench, and nut runner